Event Cancellation

Why take any chances on events that could be cancelled, abandoned or postponed when they entail hours of labour, effort and money? It would have a tremendous financial impact if something goes wrong, and this will fall on the shoulders of the event organiser.

This insurance is required for any type of event, including exhibitions, concerts, conferences, processions, festivals and sports events.

Our policy provides the cover required to protect event organisers against their financial loss.

In order for the cover to apply, the event must either be cancelled, abandoned or postponed due to circumstances beyond the organiser's control.

EXAMPLES OF THIS ARE:

- Damage to the venue.
- Breakdown of technical equipment.
- Government intervention such as national mourning.
- Labour, social and political disturbance or Riot and Strike.
- Non-appearance of an individual or group of performers due to illness, death and accident and/or travel delays. Catastrophic non-appearance of a number of persons or group of persons (group of delegates).
- Adverse weather for events in the open. Please note that cover for this extension must be bound 14 (fourteen) days prior to inception of the policy.

MAIN EXCLUSIONS TO BE NOTED:

- The usual war and nuclear exclusions.
- Threat of terrorism.
- Poor attendance or lack of attendance or participation – particularly suited to ticket-sale events.
- Financial failure and credit risks.

WHAT AMOUNT SHOULD YOU INSURE THE EVENT FOR?

The event organiser can insure against expenses, ticket sale or sponsorship.

The same expense budget as used by the organiser will be used for underwriting purposes. As the budget is a work in progress, always ensure that the final version is given to us prior to the event.

WHAT IS PAID IN THE EVENT OF A CLAIM?

If the cancellation takes place prior to the event, the costs incurred up to the time of the cancellation or due date thereafter (in accordance with existing written agreements) as well as the costs of revoking any agreements already entered into, will be paid. In the case of abandonment during the course of an event, the costs incurred in reorganising the event will be paid. Only amounts declared in the budget at inception will be taken into consideration.
