GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

These general terms and conditions apply to this entire policy. There are further specific terms and conditions in the applicable policy sections. Please make sure that you understand all the terms and conditions as they apply to you. If there is anything you do not understand, please ask your broker for assistance.

1. INSURABLE INTEREST DEFINITION.

In terms of a personal insurance policy, you may only insure property in which you have a proven financial interest. If you have children who are not permanently residing with you and are financially independent, they must insure on their own policy. If cover is required for property belonging to any other person or registered in any name other than your legal spouse and children, this must be specifically agreed by the insurer and noted on your policy schedule. Any family residing with you that have an independent income, must be noted as a co-insured on the policy.

2. YOU MUST TAKE CARE OF THE ITEMS THAT YOU HAVE INSURED.

You have a duty to take all reasonable care to prevent any loss, damage, accidents, injuries, or legal liabilities. Following any damage, you should make reasonable repairs to your property to prevent further damage.

3. CAREFULLY CHECK ALL THE INFORMATION ON YOUR SCHEDULE AND NOTIFY US OF ANY CHANGES.

You must make sure that all the information you have provided is correct and up to date. If you do not provide us with all the information you have that could affect the acceptance of this insurance, your claims may not be paid, and your policy may be declared invalid.

4. YOUR BROKER IS YOUR AGENT.

Your broker is there to help you with any questions you may have regarding this insurance.

5. THE INSURED AMOUNTS ARE THE MAXIMUM THAT WE WILL PAY IN THE EVENT OF A CLAIM.

It is important that you check your schedule and make sure that all the amounts shown are correct. The insured amount is the maximum amount that we will pay in the event of a claim. If an amount is missing from the schedule, you will not be insured for that item or event and any premium that you may have paid for that item will be refunded to you.

6. THE INSURED AMOUNTS MAY BE AUTOMATICALLY INCREASED TO MATCH INFLATION.

The insured amounts reflected on your schedule may be automatically increased on an annual basis by a percentage matching the inflation rate. This increase will take place on the anniversary date of the policy.

7. THIS INSURANCE ONLY APPLIES TO YOU, THE POLICYHOLDER.

You may not transfer any of your rights under this policy to another person. No other person may make a claim against us in terms of this insurance policy.

8. IF YOU HAVE OTHER INSURANCES COVERING THE SAME EVENT, WE WILL ONLY PAY A PORTION OF THE CLAIM.

If a claim is payable under this policy and under any other policy, we will only pay our rateable proportional share of the claim.

9. YOU MUST PAY YOUR PREMIUMS.

To be covered, you must pay your premiums. If you place a stop order on your premium debit, this policy will automatically be cancelled from the last premium due date.

(A) If this is a monthly policy:

This policy runs for a period of one calendar month, and you pay your premium via a debit order each month in advance. The policy will automatically be renewed each month when you pay your premium. If you do not pay your premium by the due date as specified on your schedule, we will grant you a 30-day grace period, and you will be debited for the outstanding premium along with the next month's premium. Provided that in the case of a monthly policy, the period of grace will only apply with effect from the second month after the inception date of the policy.

If you have a claim during your grace period, we will not process the claim until we have received all outstanding premiums and if the premium remains unpaid, your claim will not be accommodated. Monthly policies may not be paid in cash or via Electronic Fund Transfer and must be paid via debit order.

Premiums are paid in advance and in the case of a monthly policy, a premium is paid by the insured to be covered for loss or damage in the month ahead. Selecting a debit order collection date between the 25th and the last day of the month, could result in an initial double debit, or a pro rata debit amount and the next month's premium being debited when the first full debit order is presented. There will be no grace period for the first premium on a new policy.

Non-payment will result in the policy being cancelled with effect from the inception date of the policy as the policy does not incept until the first premium is received. It is your responsibility to ensure that there are sufficient funds available in your account to cover the deduction of the premium payment.

(B) Unpaid premiums.

If the Insured submits a request to their financial institution that states "Payment stopped" or "Debits not allowed" or "No authority to debit" or any similar instruction is given, this will be regarded as a cancellation by the consumer and the insurer will not continue debiting the premium. Cover will be cancelled from the last day of the month in which a full premium was received.

The payment of unpaid premiums within the grace period granted by the policy must be done via a resubmission of the unpaid debit order. No cash or EFT payments will be accepted on unpaid premiums.

(C) If this is an annual policy:

This policy runs for a period of one calendar year, and you pay your premium on or before the inception or renewal date. The policy will be renewed when you pay your premium. If you do not pay your premium within 30-day grace period, you will not have any cover and your policy will automatically be cancelled from midnight (24h00) on the day before the due date. No claims will be processed during the grace period until we have received the full annual premium.

10. WHAT YOU NEED TO DO IF YOU HAVE A CLAIM:

If you become aware of an event that has led to a claim or is likely to cause a claim under this policy, you must let us know as soon as you become aware of the claim, preferably not more than 30 days after the event.

Late notification of claims may result in the claim not being paid and no late notification claims will be considered if the company has not been advised of such claim, in writing, within 180 (one-hundred and eighty) from the date of such incident.

(A) You must provide the following documentation to us upon request and as soon as possible to facilitate the finalization of the claim:

1. A written description of the claim and the event leading to the claim.
2. Any proof, information, statements, and sworn declarations that we may ask for.
3. Any documents or details of any communication which you have received in connection with the claim, and
4. The details of any other insurance covering the same event. If any other insurance exists and covers the same property, we will only pay our proportional share of any claims.
5. Do not admit even if you are at fault, make any promises, or accept or give any payment to any third parties without our written permission.

6. If the claim involves a motor accident or involves any crime such as theft or vandalism, you must report the matter to the police within 24 hours. You must send the South African Police Service case number or accident report number to us as soon as possible.
7. We will not pay a claim under more than one section of this policy for loss or damage if the loss or damage is covered by more than one section.
8. If we reject or dispute any claim made under this policy, you have 90 (ninety) days to object to our decision. Your objection must be in writing and must include the reasons for your objection. If your objection is not successful, you have 180 (one hundred and eighty) days after the end of the 90 (ninety) day period to serve a summons on us. If you do not do so, we will no longer have any liability under this policy.
9. Any claim in terms of this policy will prescribe after 12 (twelve) calendar months from the date of occurrence of the insured incident if the claim is outstanding and not subject to a then pending court case.
10. If we compensate you for a claim for the maximum insured amount for an item or event, we will not refund any premium for the remainder of the period of your insurance for that item or event.

(B) What you need to do if there is a claim against you.

If you become aware of any prosecution, inquest, or other legal action that may lead to a claim against you, you must tell us immediately.

11. OUR RIGHTS AS THE INSURER IF YOU HAVE A CLAIM:

You must allow us to enter the premises where the event took place, take possession of any damaged property insured by this policy, and deal with it in a manner we consider reasonable.

You may not abandon any property to us, whether we have taken possession of it or not.

If we have paid a claim for lost or stolen property, and that property is recovered, such property belongs to the Insurer, and you must provide us with all reasonable assistance in identifying and recovering the property if we ask you to do so. We will pay any reasonable expenses you may incur while assisting us. If you do not assist us when asked, you will be liable to pay back all the amounts we have paid in respect of the claim.

You must supply all information and assistance that we reasonably require, and we may take over the recovery, defence or settlement of a claim and conduct it in your name.

We may, at any time, relinquish control of any defence, settlement or proceedings and pay you the full amount of our liability, or any lesser amount for which the claim can be settled. If we do so, we will be discharged from all further liability.

If this policy provides insurance to you and any other person, we may give any compensation to the other person. This payment will discharge us from any further liability.

If we pay the maximum amount for your claim, then we will not refund you any premiums for the unexpired period of insurance.

12. WHAT YOU MUST PAY IF YOU HAVE A VALID CLAIM UNDER THIS POLICY.

The excess is the amount you must pay before we settle any claim. The schedule of this policy will reflect the excess payable in the event of a claim.
